

KML

METAL LOUVER

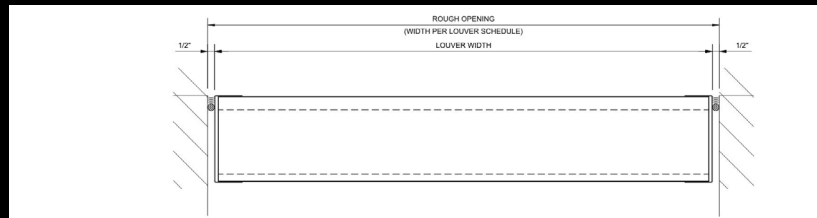

KML // Product Overview

Elevation View // Section View

Kovach Building Enclosure's Metal Louvers allow very little water penetration while maintaining airflow. Designed with jam gutters, our louvers are drainable and direct water out and away from the opening. Mill finish, standard and custom colors are available in a fluoropolymer (Kynar) painted finish. Louvers provided by Kovach include shop drawings specific to each project.

Plan View Section

KML // Product Details

University of Arizona // Cancer Center

Features

- Variable system depth (typically 4" - 6")
- Drainable Design
- Typical aluminum construction
- Material thickness for blades, sills, head and jambs customized per project requirements
- .188" support channels
- .125" attachment angle
- Typical 38° blade angle

Finishes

- 1 mil thick Kynar 500
- Standard and custom colors
- Meets AAMA specification 2605
- 10 year finish warranty

Available Options

- Invisible or intermediate mullions
- Aluminum bird/insect screens
- Calculations on request
- Variable blade orientation

Please contact Kovach Building Enclosures to discuss customization for your project.

